United States Attorney Deborah R. Gilg and the Federal Bureau of Investigation announce the following information for the attention of the media:

Event Triggering this Release:

Devin Enriquez was sentenced on December 3, 2010, to 36 months imprisonment by the Honorable Joseph F. Bataillon, Chief United States District Judge, following his conviction for perjury before the grand jury. Enriquez had been sentenced to 13 years in prison following his convictions for armed bank robbery and related charges back in 2009. Enriquez, accompanied, by two other masked men, robbed a TierOne bank branch at 8820 Arbor Street in September of 2008. Following his conviction and sentencing on the robbery charges he was brought before a federal grand jury and asked about the identity of the other two robbers. Despite direct orders from the Court, Mr. Enriquez repeatedly refused to answer questions posed by grand jurors and prosecutors. Eventually he testified, under oath, that he had forgotten who robbed the bank with him. His false claim to not remember who the other robbers were resulted in his conviction for perjury. Judge Bataillon ordered that the 36 month sentence for perjury be run consecutively to the 13 year sentence he is already serving.
